“Big Ideas and Ethics in the Big Easy”

May 21, 2019 – May 23, 2019
- If you are unable to do so, inform the investigator, CRC or your supervisor about what you can and cannot do.

- Preparing for and dealing with complications:
  - Keeping subjects informed of their status and options
  - Protecting confidentiality of personal information
  - Protecting studies from bias

AAHRPP Standard 1.9

- The organization has written policies and procedures to ensure that, when sharing oversight of research with another organization, the rights and welfare of research participants are protected.
  - Unless explicitly ceded to the reviewing IRB or EC, the organization retains the organization’s responsibilities defined in Domain I.
  - When additional reviews relevant to the HRPP are conducted by an external organization, including but not limited to biosafety review, radiation safety review, recombinant DNA research review, human stem cell research review, and conflict of interest review, the relying organization must have policies and procedures describing review documentation, communication, and education.
